

KEVIN MAILLOUX

Former Seattle Mariners Draft Pick, Kevin Mailloux, has signed to play with the London Majors. Mailloux is 6'1", 200 lbs, 24 years old and is from Tecumseh ON.

"I am thrilled to have a player of Kevin's calibre join our organization", says Roop Chanderdat, Co-owner, GM and Field Manager. "Kevin is very talented and has been an all star at every level he has played at". "Mailloux will be a middle of the order hitter and will solidify our infield defence".

Listed below is some information on Mailloux's baseball career.

Professional Career and Awards

--Drafted in the 45th round to the Seattle Mariners in 2009
--All-star Second base(09), Third base(10) and League Champions in both years in AZL(09) and NWL(10)

NCAA Career and Awards

--2009, 2008, 2006 --1st team All-Canadian College Baseball team
-- 2005 -- 2nd team All-Canadian Baseball team

-Played 2 years at Canisius College (2008,2009)
--Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management
--Named 2009 Canisius college Male Athlete of the Year
--Named 2008 Comeback Athlete of the Year

--2009	--2008
3rd team All American by Ping Baseball	3rd team All American by A.B.C.A
1st team All region A.B.C.A	1st team All region A.B.C.A
1st team All conference M.A.A.C	1st team All conference M.A.A.C

--2008 Named to the Coastal Plains League All Star Team playing for Forest City Owls as the best Second Baseman.
--2007 Gold medal in the Ontario Junior elimination.
--2007 Gold medal in the Canadian Junior championships

-Played 2 years at Kellogg Community College
--Associates in Arts degree
--Named 2006 K.C.C Most Offensive player of the year

--2006	--2005
2nd team N.J.C.A.A All-American	1st team M.C.C.A.A All-Conference
1st team N.J.C.A.A Region 12	1st team N.J.C.A.A Region 12
1st team M.C.C.A.A All-Conference	1st team M.C.C.A.A All-Conference

--2005 won the Gold Medal at the Canadian Summer Games in Regina, Saskatchewan.
-Named to the Canadian Summer Games Baseball All-Tournament team.