MAJORS SIGN U.S. IMPORT

[Wednesday, March 17, 2010 – London, ON] ROOP CHANDERDAT, Co-Owner, General Manager and Field Manager of the LONDON MAJORS is very pleased to announce CLEVELAND BROWNLEE has signed to play with the Majors for the 2010 season.

Brownlee, 25 is 6'6", 235 lbs, bats and throws right and plays 1B and OF. He is from Atlanta, Georgia and played his college ball at Clark Atlanta University (NCAA Division II).

In College, Brownlee bated over 0.300 all four years and led the team in homeruns and RBI each year. Cleveland finished off his College career with 46 homeruns. Some College highlights include: Winning SIAC First Team all Conference, All SIAC Tournament Team, SIAC Second Team, MVP of Clark Atlanta University.

Brownlee also spent some time with several Independent Pro Teams including the Windy City Thunderbolts in 2008, the Atlantic City Surf in 2009, Laredo Broncos in 2009, and the Alexandria Aces in 2009.

Brownlee has trained with former MLB Star Cecil Fielder. According to Fielder, "this kid has out of control power, runs well for a big guy."

"Cleveland is a great young man who wants to play the game of baseball," says Chanderdat. "He has good speed and power and I look forward to seeing him play in our league."
