

April 17, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Roop Chanderdat, Co-Owner, General Manager and Field Manager of the LONDON MAJORS is very pleased to announce he has signed 1st baseman / outfielder, Mitch Delaney. Mitch is from LaSalle, Ontario. Delaney is 21 years old, 6'2" and 220 lbs.

Delaney was drafted out of high school by the Chicago White Sox, however he declined to sign with them and attended Western Texas College on a full ride scholarship. After completing a year at Western Texas, Mitch was drafted again, this time by the New York Yankees. Delaney signed with the Yankees and played in the minors for a year and a half and then got released. Mitch is currently attending Lubbock Christian University and will be eligible for the draft once again in 2011.

Delaney played for the London Majors in 2007. That season as an 18 year old Mitch batted 0.226 with 5 homeruns, 5 doubles and 15 rbi. "I am looking forward to returning to the London Majors and playing for Roop", says Delaney.

"I am excited to have Mitch back and we will help him in his development as a player", says Chanderdat. "He is a good kid and has a good bat", says Chanderdat.

For more information please contact Roop Chanderdat at (519) 870-2727 or roop@londonmajors.com.

London Majors Baseball
www.londonmajors.com